FEBRUARY 18, 1905.

The Weather.

Washington, D. C. Feb. 17.—For Kentucky—Cloudy and threatening tonight and Saturday, with probably rain or snow.

Jay Cooke, the noted Philadelphia financier, died Thursday of general debility.

Mr. Watterson is now in Spain and his letters to the Courier-Journal are very interesting.

John W. Gates has cornered the wheat market at Chicago and intimates that he will send May wheat to $2 within the next sixty days.

S. B. Roath, the eccentric millionaire at Norwich, Conn., who distributed $1,000,000 among his poor relatives eighteen months ago, died this week. He was 76 years old.

The long lost grave of Paul Jones has at last been found in Paris, France, where the great sea fighter died in 1792. His last naval service was as a rear admiral in the Russian navy in 1790.

The Illinois legislature appropriated $500 to feed game birds during the present extreme cold weather. Grain will be scattered in places frequented by quail and prairie chickens.

Under the operation of the Gates crowd, May wheat Thursday jumped to $1.21½ on the Chicago Board of Trade, and the Gates party is said to have made $410,000 in the day's proceedings.

The great revival in Louisville, New Albany, and Jeffersonville is now under full headway. Overflow meetings are being held in many churches, and everywhere the attendance is large.

The Louisville people seem to be coming to their senses at last. Pat Sharkey, who had Editor Dick Knott indicted and fined $500 for writing up his resort, has been himself indicted for suffering gaming in his saloon.

The Elkton Progress prints on its first page a lengthy article about coins, in which Editor Gaines gives as "facts" a lot of hearsay evidence about all sorts of money. A conscientious newspaper man should be careful about mentioning as "facts" such things as he has not seen himself.

Gov. Pennypacker, of Pennsylvania, Thursday withdrew the death warrant in the case of Mrs. Kate Edwards, who was to have been hanged at Reading, and the case will again go before the board of pardons. The woman murdered her drunken husband, because she had become the mistress of a negro. Her crime was committed four years ago and the people of Pennsylvania have wasted a great deal of misplaced sympathy upon a depraved creature who but for her sex would have been executed long ago.

Directors of the Louisville and Nashville railroad, meeting in New York, conferred a new honor upon a deserving young official, by electing Mr. Wible L. Mapother, Jr., to the first vice presidency of the road. He has been filling the duties of the position since the resignation of Walker D. Hines last fall. Mr. Mapother started with the road as an office boy and has risen on his own merits. He was recently chief clerk to President Milton H. Smith.

The Kansas legislature has passed the bill providing for a State oil refinery. It only requires the signature of the Governor, which, it is expected, will be appended at once. An appropriation of $410,000 is made for the purpose. This makes the State a business rival of the Standard Oil Company and the experiment will be watched with interest by other trust-ridden States. The refinery will be run by convict labor and the plant will handle 3,000 barrels of crude oil daily.

The contest for the senatorial seat left vacant by the death of Hon. J. W. Gilbert, at Murray, has already begun. Sheriff Felix Grasty, of Cadiz, is the first aspirant to announce. Mr. Grasty is a strong administration man. It was reported this week that Mr. Grasty was about to enter the race for county judge of Trigg county, but the death of Senator Gilbert caused a change in his plans.

Spring is near at hand in Manchuria and the great battle that will mean victory or ruin for Russia will be fought very soon, before the roads are softened by rain. It is believed that the Japanese are getting ready for a general attack at once.

President Roosevelt will take his Texas trip about March 25, stopping in Louisville two hours en route. He will attend a reunion of the Rough Riders at San Antonio, March 31.

The Court of Appeals will hear witnesses to-day in regard to the question of jurisdiction raised over the Cockrill murder cases.

President Roosevelt has ordered commissioner of corporations to investigate the oil trust.

NATURAL CURIOSITIES

For Which Christian County is Noted Elsewhere.

A recent write-up of the natural curiosities in Kentucky, in the Louisville Times, contained these two in our own county:

In Christian county a few miles from Hopkinsville is the Pilot Rock. The summit is level and covers about half an acre of ground, on which small trees and shrubbery grow. Its most elevated summit can be easily reached, and a fine view of the surrounding country is presented.

About twenty miles from Hopkinsville is a natural bridge, not so large as Natural Bridge of Virginia but just as interesting. It is thirty feet high and crosses a deep ravine. It has a magnificent arch and a span of sixty feet and a width of about five feet, while the surface is level.

TOMPKINS CONVICTED.

Slayer of Jim Brame to Pay the Penalty.

The jury in the case of Garth Tompkins, col., who killed Jim Brame, col., of Beverly, this county, at Madisonville, two years ago last Christmas, found the defendant guilty and fixed his punishment at death. Tompkins had served a term in the penitentiary and during his incarceration his wife secured a divorce and married Brame. When Tompkins returned from the pen he began to try to get his wife to come back and live with him. This she refused to do. Tompkins then shot Brame in the back, killing him instantly. He was tried at a former term of court and given a death sentence, but the Court of Appeals granted him a new trial.

Democratic papers all over the state are demanding the removal of Jim Hargis from the State Central Committee before the party is disgraced by his further conviction while a member of its state organization. A judgment for $8,000 in the Marcum damage suit is now pending against him. If he is ever taken to Lexington and Winchester for trial on the murder and contempt charges for which he is wanted, his conviction is certain, if the evidence of Feltner and Fields published in the Courier-Journal is worthy of any sort of credence. He has been renominated for county judge of Breathitt county. Take him off the ticket and remove him from the committee.
